Objective: to understand the impacts and influences that outside environments have on a management area and how this needs to be considered when developing a CMS plan.

Activity: 1) each team will discuss and then illustrate on their maps human use activities from outside their management area (occurring in the study area) 2) if time permits, share results with whole group.

Time: 1 hour